COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The first snow storm of the year has arrived. Although it was a light snow it points up the difficulties we can expect without more machine operators. We have four trucks for plowing, one sand truck, a grader and loader, with four men to operate them at the present. This problem is being faced by most of the communities I have had contact with. Historically municipalities have not offered the incentives such as increased wages, retirement plus other fringe benefits that industry does to attract and keep good workers.

Bethel has done more than some but it seems quite sure we will have to do more as we have been unable to hire a good man who can operate all machines this year. We can use part-time help to some extent but this becomes expensive when during a heavy storm we have to use operators who have not driven the equipment and even though they are some of the best on any machine they are acquainted with, they cannot do as much as an experienced man plus the fact we will have more breakdowns and repair bills.

GUIDE TO BE REVISED FOR SESQUICENTENNIAL OF STATE OF MAINE

The Maine League of Historical Societies and Museums has come up with a special contribution to the observance of Maine's 160th birthday anniversary in 1970—the sponsorship of the revised sesquicentennial edition of the State Guide.

The 474-page travel and reference work, first published in 1937 under sponsorship of the then Maine Development Commission, is in constant use and demand by researchers and tourists as the only comprehensive volume of its kind on Maine.

The League's president, Mrs. Dorris Isaacson of Lewiston and Phippsburg, said the project "is enthusiastically endorsed by Governor Curtis, the Department of Economic Development, the State Library, the State Archives, the Arts and Humanities Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission, and many others."

"Since the Guide is a reference work rather than a mere listing," Mrs. Isaacson explained, "the League's 75 historical societies in Maine's 16 counties are enthusiastically suited for the careful preparation and documentation required. Professional specialists have offered their services for the general essays and illustrations."

Mrs. Isaacson, head of the League's editorial board and editor of its quarterly, "Maine History News," said the original format will be used where feasible, with updated new text and more than 100 maps and pictures.

Changes over a quarter of a century will be reflected in the general essays on industry, art, recreation and the like as well as in the special treatment showing development of Maine's major cities and towns.

New material on these and large new sections covering all parts of the state will reveal not only what Maine has to offer but also the rapid development of Maine's vast natural resources. The development of the state's natural resources from the time of the first English settlement in New England here in 1607.

There, too, there will be an

P. T. A. TO SPONSOR NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE - CHILDREN'S THEATRE

A committee meeting to plan the annual New Year's Eve Dance was held at the home of chairman Eldon Greenleaf Tuesday evening. This event which is sponsored by the P. T. A., will be held Dec. 30 at Bingham Gym. Watch this paper for further details.

The P. T. A. is also sponsoring the Children's Theatre of Portland, Dec. 16 at Bingham Hall. The group will present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" at that time.

HIGHWAY NIGHT PATROL BEGINS 14th SEASON THIS WEEK END

The State Highway Commission's night patrol will begin its regular seasonal tour of duty along main-traveled highways in the state this week end. Partial coverage by the patrols on some sections of Interstate and state highways has been underway for the past two weeks.

This is the fourteenth season the night patrols will keep watch on about 2,000 miles of the state's most-traveled highways, including 215 miles of Interstate highways.

The major purpose of the patrols is to alert plowing and sanding crews if needed. Patrolmen also carry enough sand in their trucks to cover short, icy sections of highway in dangerous locations and are prepared to aid motorists in distress. Last winter, according to a tabulation made by the Commission, the night patrol assisted 1,279 motorists who were stranded in rural areas. Of those aided by the patrols 1,028 of the cars bore Maine license tags, 253 were registered out of state.

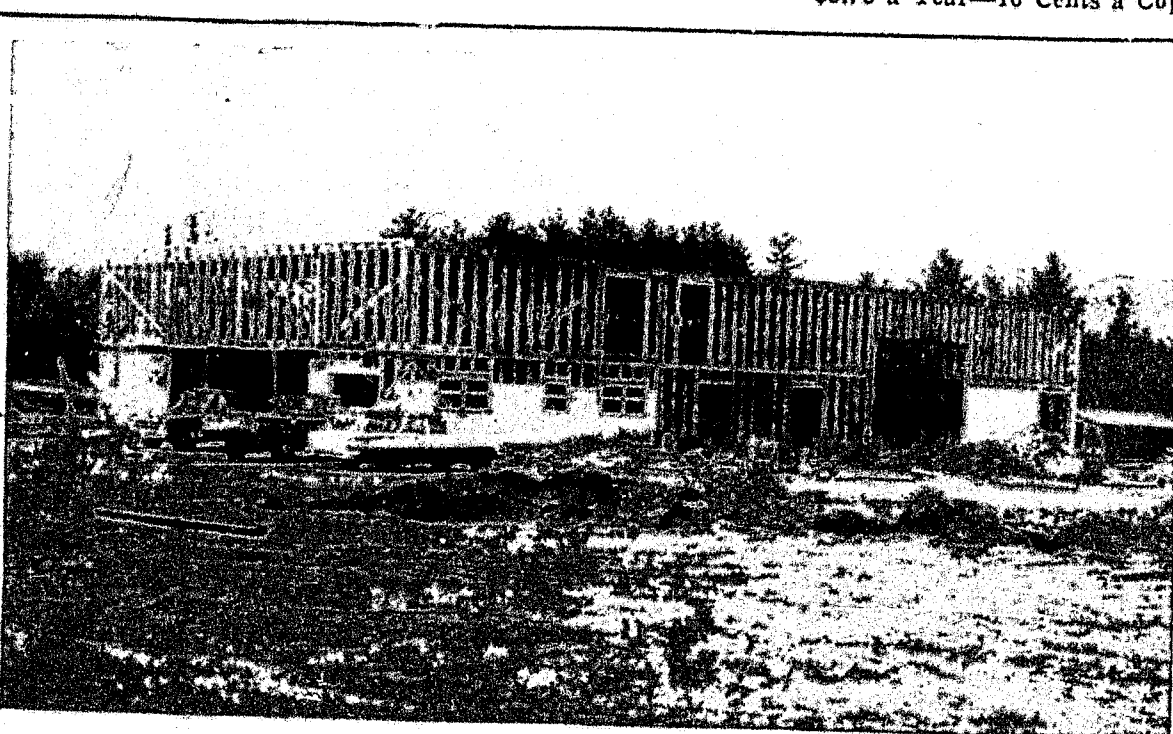

During the nightly round of duties, patrols contact their division offices by radio at least once each hour, through the night, reporting weather conditions and road conditions. This information is passed on by the division offices to the department's headquarters office in Augusta every two hours. Every day at 6:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. a statewide report is made available by the Augusta office to the Presque Isle, Ellsworth, Bangor, Portland and Rumford division offices.

All of this information—late reports on local highway conditions as well as the statewide report—is made available to news services and the general public at the above listed offices any time of day or night. Information can also be obtained from the Waterville and Rockland offices Monday through Fridays from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Area motorists may wish to make note of the telephone number of the Rumford Highway Office so they can take advantage of this road condition reporting service.

Rumford Highway Office, 39 Exchange Street, telephone 364-3791 and 364-2201. Office open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Late state-wide reports available after 6 p. m. at 10 p. m. every day of the week. Hours of the night patrol are at any time of day or night.

For further information on the state's patrol areas and state patrol stations.

TO PUBLISH WEDNESDAY NEXT WEEK

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday The Citizen will be published Wednesday next week. Contributors and advertisers are reminded of the earlier deadline. Copy should be submitted as early in the week as possible.

WEEK IN OXFORD CO.

Dedication ceremonies for the Dr. G. G. DeFoe Memorial Gymnasium of the Dirigo High School in Dixfield will take place at 2 p. m. Sunday. Frederick Douglas from the State Department of Education will take part on the program. The public will have an opportunity to tour the building following the dedication.

Wayne Thurston of Norway who served as Peace Corp volunteer in India for two years spoke on that country and showed slides at the meeting of Canton's Busy Workers 4-H Club at Canton Polar Monday evening.

Construction of the 10-unit apartment building, Main St., South Paris, is progressing rapidly. The building is on the site of the old Paris Inn. The building was purchased by Robert P. Bahre of Connecticut who had it razed last summer.

Directors of S.A.D. 55 have elected Mrs. Louis Wheaton of Keegan Falls as school nurse for the district. Mrs. Wheaton is a graduate of the Roosevelt Hospital School of Nursing in New York City.

A safe sliding area is being developed and nearing completion for the youngsters of South Paris and Norway. About three acres of land, the property of the Clarence G. Morton estate, is the location. The area will be maintained and operated by the Norway-Parris Recreation Commission.

Michael C. Chapman, 54 of South Paris is being held at the County Jail in South Paris on a murder charge following the death of his wife, Jean H. Chapman, last Friday night at their home on Western Promenade. A probable cause hearing on a murder charge against Chapman was delayed until Friday by Judge John L. Hathorne in the District Court of South Paris Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Grace of Arden was scheduled to work at the office of the Tax Assessor this morning but was in the office at the present time.

NEW LOCATION OF LOCAL BUILDING SUPPLY CONCERN

Above is the new home for Western Maine Supply Co. under construction on Cross Street, Bethel. The two story 52x124 ft building will house offices, carpentry shop, retail store, and storage area for the local concern presently operated by Frank Lowell at a Summer Street location. An additional 18x24 ft wing will include a loading platform. It is hoped that the new facility will be in use by Spring.

MAINE TEACHERS ASSN. TO SPONSOR POLITICAL ACTION CLINIC

A political action clinic for teachers will be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17 and 18, in Augusta under the sponsorship of the Maine Teachers Association.

Senator Bennett D. Katz (R), Augusta and Rep. Louis J. Albert (D), Lewiston, will speak. Benjamin Dorsky, president of the Maine State Federated Labor Council, will report on how labor organizes for political action.

MTA has invited citizenship chairman of local teachers associations to attend.

Dr. John H. Marvin, MTA executive secretary, and David W. Bustin, assistant executive secretary, will discuss the responsibility of teachers for active citizenship.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mott, Caribou, Jennifer and Roger, of Caribou, will arrive Sunday to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mott.

Typical Maine weather has hit the Bethel area in the last few days. Saturday was cool and breezy but Sunday brought a heavy rain of rain with a heavy little blizzard shower in the evening. For those who were far from enough to see it there was a heavy rain shower early Monday morning but on the day was a heavy rain and very windy. Tuesday a very heavy little snow squall for several minutes but Wednesday brought the temperature that left us with very cold and dry weather. The first snow of the season fell on Wednesday night and the snow left a white covering of snow on the ground.

— Mrs. C. A. Judkins, Corres. —
Forty deer were registered at Judkins' Market, as of Monday P. M., Nov. 13. Another lucky hunter in town is Richard Williamson.

Clayton Thompson and family of Connecticut returned home after a visit with his father, Arthur Thompson.

A hunting party from New Jersey were on Back Street nearly a week.

Walter Griffin and party from Casco spent several days at his camp on Back Street.

Roland Bernier has received word that his father had a heart attack and is in a hospital in Massachusetts.

Adult Bible Class was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Keach in Errol Monday evening this week. Mr. Holman, the teacher, was overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Judkins.

Michael Santasuosso Jr. and nine other hunters from South Hampton, N. H., and vicinity are spending ten days at his camp in town while hunting in New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Judkins attended the Senior Citizens meeting in Bethel Tuesday this week.

The weather has turned colder, 20° above Tuesday morning, and we are having snow flurries.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Aron Sr. and son, John, of Shelton, Conn., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Judkins.

Glenn Abbott and family went to East Sumner Sunday P. M. His daughter, Diane, remained to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Abbott, for a week.

BEAR TRAP STOLEN

Last Saturday evening or early Sunday morning someone was walking in the woods on The Valentine Tree Farm Northwest Bethel, and saw and took a barbed-wire enclosed bear trap. The trap is treasured by its owner, Ernest Perkins, whose grandfather forged it by hand many years ago. Any information leading to the re-possession of the good old trap will be well rewarded.

CAMPERS WARNED OF DANGERS IN FAULTY HEATING EQUIPMENT

The Division of Sanitary Engineering of the State Department of Health and Welfare is issuing urgent warnings to all campers about the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning from faulty heating equipment.

"We've already had three deaths in Maine from asphyxiation," Earl Tibbetts, Division Director points out, "and we are trying to alert all campers and other small home or rural dwellers about the importance of protecting the lives of adults and children from needless disaster."

The Division is sending adhesive backed notices to all camp owners and is asking safety officials to post such notices in prominent places.

The notices, printed in red and black, and marked DANGER, say: "All types of heaters, lanterns and stoves, except electric, produce carbon monoxide as a product of combustion. All such heaters and appliances remove oxygen from the air. Therefore all such heaters and appliances can be deadly in unventilated areas."

The notice further warns against sleeping in trailers, tents, or camps with heaters or appliances going unless adequate ventilation is provided.

GOULD ACADEMY

Headmaster and Mrs. Edward H. Scheibler accompanied a group of students to the Portland Museum of Art to view a current exhibit of 20th century tapestries by American, European, and Israeli artists including Picasso, Miro, Leger, Matisse. The exhibit is on loan from the Museum of Modern Art in New York City. On Tuesday of this week Mr. James Owen, art instructor, took members of his Art II class to Portland to view this exhibit.

Students with season tickets for the Portland Symphony Concert series attended a Tuesday evening concert with Headmaster and Mrs. Edward Scheibler and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bigelow. Members of the Chapman Club with community concert series ticket attended an organ concert Tuesday evening in Berlin, N. H., with Mr. and Mrs. James Owen.

The Gould Athletic Council meets Thursday afternoon this week to confer letters earned by varsity team members in cross country and football.

FHA members and their faculty advisor, Mrs. Thelma Dombkowski, attended a district convention Wednesday held at Wilton Academy. Active in the planning and leadership of the convention were Bev York, State president, Janis Kennagh, district secretary and Anita Young, Gould chapter president and candidate for district chairman.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. Donald Terwilliger and Mr. William Cousins attended a meeting in Lewiston of athletic directors of independent schools in Maine and New Hampshire. Mr. Alvin

Barth, Mr. John Grover and Mr. Timothy Kersey attended a meeting in Winthrop Thursday of P. S. S. C. Physics Teachers in Maine.

An all school assembly will be held Thursday afternoon primarily to acquaint students with the colloquium to be held at Gould this coming Saturday. Mr. Scheibler will discuss the theme briefly ("The Secondary School Curriculum Today") and give the student body an introduction to the well-known New England educators who will be panel members. Gould faculty will attend the colloquium and the Headmaster will encourage all interested students to attend as well. A good invitation has gone out to educators and parents, and friends of the community are most welcome to attend and participate.

On Friday, November 17, the Student Activity Council assembly committee is presenting the Deansmen, a singing group from Bates College, who will present a half hour program for the entire school. The assembly is scheduled for 2:10 p. m. and any interested parents or members of the community are most welcome to attend. Alan Howard of the class of 1965 is a member of the group.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, C. N. R. —
Greenwood City school had open house on Thursday to observe Education Week. On Friday they had a special program for Veterans Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis and family were at their camp in Bingham over the week end.

Miss Ann Holt was at home from Gorham State College over the week end. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt took her back on Sunday.

Frank Curtis got a 263 pound 8 point buck on Saturday. I hear there are several others in town who have also bagged their deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes of Gray, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hayes, West Paris and Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Hayes of Auburn joined them for Saturday.

Sgt. Kenneth Curtis left for North Carolina on Wednesday after a 20 day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis.

SUNDAY RIVER

— Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corcor. —
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Clogston and daughter were in Lewiston Friday.

Mrs. Mary Morin has completed her trip to Mexico.

There was another hunting party at Red Noyes camp this week.

A three-colored cat hitchhiked a ride in the back of a pick-up truck and is in the area of Red Noyes' camp. The owners are from West Paris I think and are to come back hoping to find it, as it's a child's pet.

Mrs. Laura Adams of Lovell called on her brother and family, the Bryce Yates, one evening the first of the week.

There seems to be new neighbors in the Greenwood house.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilkins have a new trailer pretty well located on the other side of the road from their old home which they call.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Verrill and children and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Verrill have returned to town after a brief visit in town.

Several seem to be having bad colds but all seem to be gaining now.

There was a very untidy situation on the other day. A deer was caught in a trap near the road and got dropped into the road. It was a hazard to both cars and dogs also might have been injured. A car was stopped and the driver called the police. The deer was killed as well as the dog. The police took it to a bit more careful.

The weather had a drop down to 10° above Saturday morning but was up to 44° Sunday morning and evening. Thunder showed Sunday at 8 p. m.

Raymond Hathaway from New Jersey is visiting his mother and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Blake and Russell Yates left Nov. 6 for their winter's work in Florida arriving Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Hunters were more numerous Saturday than feathers on a red hen.

Verna Swan of Bryant Pond spent Saturday evening with the Estes Yates.

Mrs. Viva Whitman and children visited her parents, Sunday afternoon.

The Estes Yates spent their trip to Florida the last week end of October was very enjoyable although they had some trouble with the car. The car was broken off the time until Monday the day they returned to Maine. It was quite a relief that the car was broken in Florida and not back home. The car was broken in Florida and not back home.

Now they are home and there but lots of snow and cold.

The place was more plentiful up there but just as beautiful.

PROBATE APPOINTMENTS

When an estate is being probated, the court must appoint a person to manage the estate. This person is called a "personal representative" or "executor" if male and "executrix" if female. The court must also appoint a "guardian of the estate" for any minor or incompetent person who is a part of the estate.

THERE'S EVEN A LAW ABOUT CHRISTMAS TREES

If you plan to cut and ship Christmas trees this year, there are certain legal requirements that you should know about. The statute, known as the Maine Christmas Tree Law, is designed to help the Maine Forest Service and other law enforcement agencies catch Christmas tree thieves. The law could also catch those that aren't stealing, if certain requirements aren't met.

All commercial shippers of Christmas trees, boughs or tips, must be registered with the Maine Forest Service before transporting these products over a public road. A Certificate of Registration and some written proof of ownership must accompany each shipment of trees, tips or boughs. In addition, trees going outside of the New England area generally must have certification that they have been inspected and declared free of Gypsy Moth eggs. The Maine Forest Service can arrange inspection for you upon request. Trees are inspected at any stage before bundling.

In 1966, thirteen violators of the Maine Christmas Tree Law were taken to court and fined. This year, Maine Forest Rangers will stop truckloads of trees at various state exits and roving patrols will check for compliance with the law all over the state. The roving patrols will check persons cutting Christmas trees or boughs and tips to make sure that they have permission to cut from the landowner.

Registration certificates can be purchased from the Maine Forest Service in Augusta for one dollar ($1.00) or from your Town Clerk for one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25).

No certificate is required for transporting manufactured wreaths.

The Forest Service advises anyone in doubt about the law to write or call the Maine Forest Service in Augusta, or call the local Service Forester. If you are a commercial shipper, get a registration certificate and your other required records. If you are buying some trees, be sure that you get a bill of sale or proof of ownership. If you are stealing trees—watch out, there's a law to catch you.
